

As a courtesy for the youth and families of Cuyahoga County, the Family & Children First Council offers this list of partners who offer youth leadership opportunities in our area.

Youth ages 13 or older, or their parents or family members, may contact any of the places below to inquire about leadership opportunities that will help youth build skills, meet new people, and shape the future for themselves and their neighbors.

Youth Advocacy and Leadership Coalition of Cuyahoga County

www.empower-youth.org

The Youth Advocacy and Leadership Coalition is a county-wide group of youth, ages 13-19, that uses their voice to have a positive impact on issues that directly affect youth.
